(1) The Department may, with the consent of the Treasury of the Isle of Man, make a scheme for determining the charges which are to be paid to the Department in respect of the performance of such of its functions as are specified in the scheme; and a scheme under this section may as respects any of those functions—

- (a) specify the amount of the charge or a scale of charges by reference to which that amount is to be ascertained or provide that the charges shall be of such amount, not exceeding that specified in the scheme, as may be decided by the Department, having regard to the expense incurred by the Department in performing the function in question and to such other factors (if any) as may be so specified;
- (b) provide for different charges for cases of such different descriptions as may be so specified;
- (c) specify the manner in which, the time at which and the person by whom any charge is to be paid.

(2) A scheme under this section shall come into force on such day as may be specified in the scheme, not being earlier than 14 days beginning with the day on which the scheme is published in such manner as appears to the Department to be calculated to bring it to the attention of persons who may be affected by it; and a scheme made under this section may vary or revoke a previous scheme so made.

(3) Omitted.

(4) Omitted

(5) Where, as respects any function of the Department provision for a charge to be paid is made by virtue of this section it shall be the duty of the Department to charge accordingly, except that it may, if it thinks fit to do so in a particular case, waive the whole or part of the charge.

(6) Nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall be construed as derogating from the power of the Department to enter into an agreement for the payment to it of charges of such amounts as may be determined in pursuance of the agreement in respect of the performance by it of any of its functions, other than a function in respect of which provision is made in pursuance of those provisions for the making of a charge or of no charge.

61 Air Navigation Orders etc,: supplemental.

(1) An Air Navigation Order may, for the purpose of securing compliance with its provisions, provide—

(a) for persons to be guilty of offences in such circumstances as may be specified in the Order and to be liable on conviction of those offences to such penalties as may be so specified; and

(b) omitted

(2) The power conferred by virtue of subsection (1)(a) above shall not include power—

(a) to provide for offences to be triable only on information;

(c) to authorise the imposition, on conviction on information of an offence, of a term of custody exceeding two years.

(3) Without prejudice to section 127(2) of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 or to Article 19(2) of the Magistrates’ Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (no time limit for offences triable either way), summary proceedings for an offence against an Air Navigation Order, or any regulations made by virtue of such an Order, may be instituted at any time within twelve months from the commission of the offence if—

(a) it was committed in connection with the flight of an aircraft in the course of which an accident occurred; and

(b) not more than six months after the commission of the offence—

(i) public notice has been given that an investigation into the accident is being carried out in accordance with regulations under section 75 below; or

(ii) the Secretary of State (acting alone or with any government department) has directed that a public inquiry into the accident be held in accordance with those regulations.

(4) In subsection (3) above “accident” has the same meaning as it has for the time being for the purposes of section 75 below; and for the purposes of that subsection, the flight of an aircraft shall be deemed to include any period from the moment when the power is applied for the purpose of the aircraft taking off on a flight until the moment when the landing run (if any) at the termination of that flight ends.

(5) The fact that any such direction as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b)(ii) above has been given on any date may be proved by the production of a certificate to that effect purporting to be signed by an officer of the Secretary of State.

(6) – (7) Omitted

(8) All sums received by way of fees paid under an Air Navigation Order shall be paid into the general revenue of the Isle of Man.

Air transport, etc.

64 Restriction of unlicensed carriage by air for reward

(1) No aircraft shall be used for the carriage for reward of passengers or cargo on a flight beginning or ending in the Isle of Man unless the operator of the aircraft holds —

(a) a valid air operator's certificate specifying activities which include the operation of aircraft on such flights as the flight in question, and

(b) either —

(i) a valid operating licence issued in accordance with the Community Regulation, or

(ii) a valid air transport licence, authorising him to operate aircraft on such flights as the flight in question;

and (where paragraph (b)(ii) applies) the terms of the licence are complied with so far as they relate to that flight and fall to be complied with before or during the flight.

(1A) Subsection (1) above does not apply where –

(a) the aircraft is registered in a country other than the Isle of Man, a Member State or any of the Channel Islands,

(b) pursuant to an Order in Council under section 60 of this Act (as it has effect in the United Kingdom) permission for the flight has been granted by or on behalf of the Secretary of State to the operator or the charterer of the aircraft or to the Government of the country in which the aircraft is registered, and

(c) any conditions to which such permission may be subject are complied with.

(2)-(3) Omitted

(4) Where an aircraft is used for the carriage of passengers or cargo in pursuance of an arrangement made between a member of an incorporated or unincorporated body of persons and that body or another member of it, then, if by reason of relationships arising from membership of the body the carriage is not apart from this subsection carriage for reward, it shall be treated for the purposes of this section as carriage for reward.

(5) Where an aircraft is used on a flight in contravention of subsection (1) above then—

(a) if before the flight began the operator of the aircraft knew or ought to have known that the use of the aircraft on that flight was likely to be in contravention of that subsection, he shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection; and

- (b) if any other person, either by negotiating a contract or otherwise howsoever, made available accommodation for the carriage of passengers or cargo on the aircraft on the flight when he knew or ought to have known before the flight began that the accommodation was likely to be provided on an aircraft when used on a flight in contravention of the said subsection (1), that person shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection;

but a person shall not (except in pursuance of section 99(1) below or the law relating to persons who aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of offences) be guilty of an offence by virtue of paragraph (b) above in consequence of the contravention by another person of a term of a licence.

(6) For the purpose of determining in pursuance of subsection (5) above whether an offence relating to a flight has been committed by the operator of the aircraft used on the flight, it is immaterial that the relevant contravention mentioned in that subsection occurred outside the Isle of Man if when it occurred the operator—

- (a) was a United Kingdom national, or
- (b) was a body incorporated under the law of the Isle of Man, or
- (c) was a person (other than a United Kingdom national or such a body) maintaining a place of business in the Isle of Man;

and for the purpose of determining in pursuance of that subsection whether an offence relating to a flight has been committed by a person who made available such accommodation as is mentioned in that subsection it is immaterial that the relevant contravention there mentioned occurred outside the Isle of Man and that at any relevant time that person was not a United Kingdom national or such a body as aforesaid if any part of the negotiations resulting in the making available of the accommodation in question took place, whether by means of the post or otherwise, in the Isle of Man.

(7) Where the Department has reason to believe that an aircraft is intended to be used in contravention of subsection (1) above on a particular flight beginning in the Isle of Man or that any term of an air transport licence relating to such a flight and falling to be complied with at or after the end of the flight may not be complied with, the Department may—

- (a) give to the person appearing to it to be in command of the aircraft a direction that he shall not permit the aircraft to take off until it has informed him that the direction is cancelled;
- (b) whether or not it has given such a direction, detain the aircraft until it is satisfied that the aircraft will not be used on the flight in contravention of the said subsection (1) or, as the case may be, that the term aforesaid will be complied with;

and a person who fails to comply with a direction given to him in pursuance of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection.

(8) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (5) or (7) shall be liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding £5,000; and

- (b) on conviction on information, to a fine or to custody for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

(9) In this section —

"air operator's certificate" means a document issued to an undertaking or a group of undertakings by a Member State which affirms that the operator in question is competent to secure the safe operation of aircraft of the types specified in the certificate on flights of the description and for the purposes so specified;

"air transport licence" means a licence granted by the Civil Aviation Authority under section 65 of this Act as it has effect in the United Kingdom;

(2) For the purposes of the enforcement the Isle of Man of any determination which is enforceable by Eurocontrol under this section, the provisions of sections 2, 3(1) and 5(2) and (3) of the Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) (Isle of Man) Act 1968 (an Act of Tynwald) (registration of judgments, rules of court and powers of court on application to set aside registration) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to the determination as they apply in relation to a judgement to which Part I of that Act applies; and accordingly, for the purposes of this section, in subsection (2) of section 5 of that Act —

- (a) the reference to subsection (1) of that section shall have effect as a reference to subsection (7) below; and
- (b) the reference to an appeal shall include a reference to an application for review of a determination.

(3) On an application for the purpose made by any person against whom a determination registered by virtue of subsection (2) above may be enforced, the registration shall (subject to subsection (7) below) be set aside if the court to which the application to register is made is satisfied —

- (a) that the determination is not a determination to which this section applies;
- (b) that the determination was registered in contravention to any provision applied by subsection (2) above; or
- (c) that by virtue of any of the following provisions of this section, the determination is not to be enforced in the Isle of Man.

(4) Subject to subsection (7) below, a determination in respect of any sum by a relevant authority in a Contracting State shall not under this section be enforced or recognised in the Isle of Man if –

- (a) that Contracting State is not the country, or one of the countries, in which, under subsection (5) below, proceedings in respect of that sum should have been brought; or
- (b) the determination is not final; or
- (c) the determination is manifestly contrary to public policy in the Isle of Man; or
- (d) the person against whom the proceedings resulting in the determination were brought did not (withstanding that process may have been duly served on him in the Contracting State in which those proceedings were brought) receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend them or, as the case may require, to apply for the proceedings to be reviewed; or
- (e) proceedings relating to the same sum have been brought previously, and are pending, in the Isle of Man; or
- (f) the determination is incompatible with the judgement of any court in the Isle of Man); or
- (g) the determination –
 - (i) involved in the application of rules of private international law to a question concerning the status or legal capacity of natural persons, or concerning rights in property arising out of matrimonial relationships concerning wills or succession (being rules different from the corresponding rules of private international law applicable in the Isle of Man), and
 - (ii) was different from the determination which would have been made if those corresponding rules had been applied.

(5) For the purposes of this section proceedings in respect of a sum payable to Eurocontrol must be brought against the person liable to pay the sum –

- (a) in the Contracting State (if any) in which that person's residence or, as the case may be, his registered office is situated;
- (b) if that person's residence or, as the case may be, his registered office is not situated in a Contracting State, in any Contracting State in which he has a place of business;
- (c) if that person's residence or, as the case may be, his registered office is not situated in a Contracting State and he has no place of business in any Contracting state, in any Contracting State in which he has assets;
- (d) if that person's residence or, as the case may be, his registered office is not situated in a Contracting State and he has neither a place of business nor any assets in any Contracting State, in the country in which Eurocontrol for the time being has its headquarters.

(6) For the purposes of this section a determination by a relevant authority in a Contracting State shall be final if neither an appeal from nor an application for review of that determination is pending in that State and it is not possible, for any of the following reasons, for such an appeal to be brought or such an application to be made, that is to say—

- (a) no appeal or review is provided for in that State in respect of the determination, being a determination made by a court or tribunal;
- (b) the time within which an appeal must be brought, or an application for review must be made, has expired;
- (c) an appeal which has been brought, or an application for review which has been made, has been withdrawn; or
- (d) the determination has been confirmed by, or made in pursuance of a direction contained in, a determination which was made by a relevant authority and is itself final.

(7) If, on an application to set aside the registration by virtue of subsection (2) above of any determination, the applicant satisfies the court to which the application to register is made that the determination is not final, the court may, on such terms as it may think fit, either –

- (a) set aside the registration; or
- (b) adjourn the application to set aside the registration until such time as the determination has become final,

but nothing in this section shall require that court to take either of these courses where there is no other ground for setting aside the registration and the court is not satisfied that the applicant intends to continue with any appeal or application for review which is pending or, as the case may be, to bring any appeal or make any such application which it is possible for him to bring or make in respect of the determination.

(8) In this section—

“Contracting State” means a country designated in an Order in Council which has been laid before Parliament as a party to the Multilateral Agreement relating to Route Charges signed at Brussels on 12th February 1981 at the Diplomatic Conference on the Protocol amending the Eurocontrol International Convention relating to Co-operation for the Safety of Air Navigation of 13th December 1960;

“relevant authority”, in relation to a Contracting State, means—

- (a) any court or tribunal which, under the law of the State, has jurisdiction to determine questions as to whether or not a sum is due to Eurocontrol in respect of air navigation services provided by Eurocontrol or some other person;
- (b) any administrative authority which, under that law, has jurisdiction to make, or is otherwise authorised to make, determinations in respect of such questions, being determinations which in that State are subject to appeal to, or review by, a court or tribunal;

 - (ii) any other aircraft of which the person in default is the operator at the time when the detention begins; and
- (b) if the charges are not paid within 56 days of the date when the detention begins, sell the aircraft in order to satisfy the charges.
